

Paws to protect

Read all the information provided with your pet's medicine

Protect your pet

Protect our environment

Protect you

They contain everything you need to know to

Scan the QR code for more information!

Always pause to read the information provided with your pet's medicine before you administer it. This helps you use it correctly and effectively whilst protecting you, your pet, and the environment.

If in doubt always ask your vet for advice.

