

Protect people, pets and the environment

Flea, tick, and worm treatments keep pets, ourselves, and our homes safe.

Fleas can jump between animals and onto household furnishings

Fleas and ticks can enter the household on our pets and our clothing

A flea can survive in the household and lay up to 50 eggs per day

Ticks can carry illnesses, like Lyme Disease

Dispose of pet waste responsibly to avoid spreading harmful parasites

Children can accidentally ingest worms and their eggs when playing outside, or from grass and soil

 Use it RIGHT.
Treat them

Seek professional advice

Using the wrong flea, tick, or worm medication can cause serious health problems for your pet.

Make sure you have the right treatment for the right pet... check before you treat

Professionals recommend the best option based on your pet's size, medical history and lifestyle

Don't let your pet miss out on professional advice

Ask an expert today

Use it
Treat them RIGHT.

Follow the instructions

Always read the instructions before applying any flea, tick and worm treatment to your pet.

Over 75% of pet owners follow the instructions on their pets' flea, tick, and worm treatment*

Make sure you do too!

Follow the instructions before bathing, swimming, or professional grooming to keep your pet and your planet fully protected

 Use it RIGHT.
Treat them

*Kantar/NOAH 2022 survey of 1500 UK pet owners

